

Multi-Discipline Intelligence Analyst

Provide Multi-Discipline Intelligence/General Military Intelligence/All-Source Intelligence Analysis of threat Networks and other asymmetric threats. Possess in-depth understanding of service Intelligence processes, procedures, and capabilities as well as how threat/asymmetric networks operate. Prepare threat and network analysis/assessments of prospective deployment locations for pre-deploying forces.

Applies knowledge of intelligence, threat analysis and forecasting tools, applications, and methodologies to identify adversarial intent, capabilities, vulnerabilities, and potential threat courses of action.

Remain informed of political-military developments in theater and maintains liaison with other agencies in order to identify intelligence gaps and initiate the required data collection to conduct holistic threat assessments.

Analyze threat network activities, composition, and TTP's, geospatial distribution of events, indications, and warnings of attacks, and information operations.

Conduct information retrieval, knowledge consolidation, analysis, and development of assessments of facts, threat intents, cultural behavioral norms, knowledge, and implications of the operational environment, and adversarial involvement in that environment.

Provide proactive insight into anticipated enemy reactions to friendly current, future operations and provides insights into second and third order effects of operational planning.

Qualifications

Civilian Education:

Bachelor's degree required.

Military Education:

Military Level School (Navy/Air Force/Army) Intelligence Officer's /Enlisted Course or service equivalents are preferred for those with an officer background.

Operational Experience:

Minimum experience ten years as an intelligence analyst within a specific intelligence discipline (HUMINT, SIGINT) or supervising Multi-INT personnel analyzing IED, insurgent, asymmetric threat networks.

U.S. Navy, US Army officer/SNCO experience with one or more deployments to expeditionary or contingency operations required.

Deployments to OIF/OEF highly preferred.

Microsoft Office proficient with a minimum of one year experience using ArcGIS (v9.x), Analyst's Notebook (v6, 7, or 8).

Familiarity with Pathfinder, CIDNE, or other data mining applications preferred.

Experience using Microsoft Excel for rudimentary statistical analysis and manipulation of data for shape files and .csv files.

Experience conducting advanced network analysis preferred.

Experience with operations centers, planning cells and operational planning teams desired.

Knowledge of Joint military targeting processes required.

Experience with Interagency and other governmental entities preferred.

Excellent written and oral communications skills.

Additional Information:

Shall possess or be eligible for a security clearance

Travel estimated to be up to 30%

Valid passport required

Start date is anticipated to be on or about 1 December 2014

SESLLC is a Drug Free Workplace and Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All hiring decisions are based on nondiscriminatory factors without regard to race, color, gender, religion, national origin, disability, genetic information, or status as a disabled veteran or other protected veteran, or any other class protected by law. In addition, SESLLC engages in affirmative action efforts, where appropriate, to employ, train, and promote qualified minorities, women, the disabled, disabled veterans, newly separated veterans or other protected veterans. This organization participates in E-Verify. If you require assistance applying for any currently open online position, please contact a SESLLC representative by email at info@sesllc.co